TUESDAY, MARCH 11, 1890.

Congressman W. T. Ellis is a candidate for re-election next November. This is authoritative. He didn't score worth a cent.

The Democrats carried five of the seven cities in Iowa which held municipal elections last week. The leaves are still at work.

When the Senate wants to make its secrets doubly secure it should plug the key-hole with Chandler or some other small potato.

The United States Senate has consumed a week of its valuable time vainly trying to find out why newspaper men know so much.

Matilda Ruby, a colored woman, died at Rayfield, Ky., at the age of 123 years. Her mother died five years ago at the age of 135 years.

A reward of $1,000 is offered for the capture of Wm. H. Pope, the fly young bank clerk who eloped from Louisville some days ago with $60,000.

Conductor John T. Hildebrand and Mr. Jas. A. Watson, a prominent business man, of Henderson, were killed in an accident on the O. V. Railroad, near Corydon, last week.

The funeral services of Hon. Geo. H. Pendleton, late Minister to Germany, were held at Cincinnati Saturday, the remains having arrived from abroad. The Kentucky Legislature attended in a body.

California workmen who are out work are appealing to the Federal government for aid in their dire extremity. And in this a state that helped elect Harrison in order that a workingman's millennium might be inaugurated.

Col. Ned Conway, of Henderson, is also out for Congress, while both Col. Powell and Dr. Norman, of the same county, are possibilities in the contest. It begins to look like the race is to be a free-for-all, with Ellis first and the rest nowhere.

The Senate Committee has reported in favor of the Republican contestants from Montana and they will of course be seated. The rump legislature that elected them had instructions from headquarters before the fraud was consummated.

The infamous gerrymander in Ohio by which the Democrats have heretofore only held five congressional districts, has been overthrown and a fair apportionment, made under which fifteen districts will be Democratic. The bill has become a law.

Christiansburg, Virginia, according to a veracious newspaper correspondent, has been startled by the appearance of four distinct suns at one time, each surrounded by a rainbow. This puts to shame the man who sees only two moons on his way home at night.

The great and only Patti filled her engagements at Louisville last week, appearing on Friday night. The engagement was for three nights, on one only of which Patti herself was to appear and it was not known what night she would sing until the tickets were all sold.

The latest from Mr. Taulbee at the time of going to press was the following special in yesterday's Nashville American: "Ex-Congressman Taulbee continues to grow more and more feeble and his hold on life more and more precarious. He is worse to night than he was yesterday, and death may come before morning. His recovery now would be almost miraculous."

The surplus, which was about $70,000,000 under the Democratic administration, has now, after one year of Republicanism, dwindled down to $20,000,000 and the party leaders are becoming frightened. The Direct Tax Bill, which proposes to refund about $40,000,000 to the States, paid out during the war, will, if it becomes a law, wipe out the poor little surplus still on hand and leave an actual deficit.

A horrible wreck occurred at Bayview, near Buffalo, N. Y., last Thursday, in which twenty odd lives were lost. Among the killed was Mrs. Jos. D. Bancus, of Saratoga, N. Y., a bride of one week, who was returning with her husband from her bridal tour. The husband was also badly injured. Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Stewart, of Rochester, were both killed, while their baby in her mother's arms escaped without a scratch. The accident was caused by the parting of a train while going down a hill.

Here it is, and it fills the bill much better than anything we could say: "It gives me the greatest pleasure to write you in regard to Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. During the past winter I have sold more of it than any other kind, and have yet to find any one but what was benefited by taking it. I have never had any medicine in my store that gave such universal satisfaction." J. M. ROBERT, Druggist, Gauda Springs, Kansas. 50 cent bottles for sale by Buckner Leavelle.

LEGISLATIVE MATTERS.

The Thorne tobacco bill regulating warehouse charges passed the House Friday.

The Legislature adjourned over Saturday to attend the Pendleton obsequies at Cincinnati.

Mr. Wallace's count bill will be passed as soon as the General Statutes Committee is reached in the call, which will be this or next week.

Friday was bill day and 54 new bills were introduced. This makes the total number of bills introduced in both houses 1,154.

The Senate confirmed the nomination of Dr. J. Q. A. Stewart to succeed himself as medical superintendent of the Feeble Minded Institute; also the nominations of three commissioners for the Eastern Asylum.

Mr. Moore offered a bill to create a Board of State Commissioners of Public Charities, three in number, to be appointed by the Governor and paid from the per capita allowances of the eleemosynary institutions. The bill will probably pass and three $1,500 places will be at the Governor's disposal.

The House bill on calling the Constitutional Convention came up Friday and Mr. Warren, of Lincoln, made a speech against it. Mr. Smith, of Graves, who is also opposed to the bill, will not speak against it but will content himself with a negative vote. The measure or a similar one is sure to pass and the convention will meet in October.

MR. CLARK'S BILLS.

Hon. H. B. Clark, of Christian, has introduced sixteen bills, all of a local character. Most of them have passed the House and several of them have been signed by the Governor. The more important are the following:

To change the time of holding quarterly court from the first to the second Monday. Now a law.

For the benefit of Kitty Hawkins, col. Passed and signed.

To charter the Pembroke Deposit Bank. Passed and signed.

Authorizing the City of Hopkinsville to re-issue $15,000 of its matured bonds. Now a law.

Chartering the Kentucky Universalist Church, in Hopkinsville. Passed and signed.

Amending the charter of Bethel Female College. Passed and signed.

Amending the Hopkinsville Public School act and authorizing the Trustees to build another school building. Has passed the Senate.

A bill just introduced prohibits the sale of spirits within three miles of Newstead church.

THE CRAFT.

The Paducah News is out in a new dress.

Kernels is the name of a new humorous paper at Louisville. Issued weekly.

The Wellfist, Neb. Standard, a new paper by Bedford & Miller, has been received.

The Owensboro Inquirer has improved its appearance with a handsome new head.

W. W. Martin, associate editor of the Eddyville Gazette, has resigned and will practice law.

Chas. C. Howard, editor of the Larue Herald, was married on the 5th inst. to Miss Mattie Hansborough.

J. W. Falconer, editor Falconer's Magazine, published at Cynthiana, Ky., has been adjudged insane. The cause is said to have been excessive brain work.

The first number of the Wichita County Democrat, published at Iowa Park, in the Panhandle of Texas, has reached our table. It is edited by W. R. Crockett.

Bob Thomas' trial at Morganfield, for shooting and killing Geo. Elmore in a street encounter at Caseyville, will come up at this month's term of the Union Circuit Court.

Lee Elmore has sold the Mayfield Democrat to Jas. T. Webb and retires from the paper. The last issue under his management was an enormous twenty-page edition booming the town of Mayfield. Elmore is a good newspaper man and will not remain long out of the harness.

WHISKIES.

Of the Old Kentucky style are steadily increasing in favor with those people who seek absolute purity combined with that fruity and mellow flavor to be found only in the genuine product of "Old Kaintuck."

HARPER'S NELSON COUNTY WHISKY is and has been for years before the public and has as well merited a reputation in its own State as it possesses abroad. Edmundson & Long, sole agents, Hopkinsville, Ky.

It must be growing hot about the White House as the Democratic news from Iowa and elsewhere continues to come in. Harrison has had five alarm boxes put in the building.

Special Notice To members of Farmers and Laborers Union.
